

Radio Times

Not your usual one for the family album! Photographer Tim Malyon travelled to the remote Ladakh region of the Himalayas and on Tuesday (Radio 4) he re-creates his views through the viewfinder in 'Snapshots from the Roof of the World'

4 FM
92.4-94.6
LW
198 kHz
1515 m

NEW SERIES

11.50-12.00 LW
Snapshots from the Roof of the World

Radio Pictures of Ladakh
In the first of four programmes, radio photographer

Tim Malyon puts you behind the viewfinder of his camera on an assignment in this remote region of the Himalayas.

1: The Road to Chilling
Producer NIGEL ACHESON

● INFO: page 74

Wot, no yetis?

Snapshots from the Roof of the World, Tuesday 11.50am Radio 4 LW

In this four-part radio series Tim Malyon talks about the photographs he took on a trip to the Himalayas for the Save the Children Fund. The photographs will be re-created on radio through his own descriptions and recorded sounds.

They can also be seen in a ten-page article in the May issue of 'World Magazine'. From 1 to 30 June Tim's photographs will be exhibited at the School of Oriental and African Studies, Malet Street, London WC1.